

Thank you to the following supporters of the All About Me Binder

Therapeutic interventions for children with moderate to severe childhood disorders. Our FULL-SERVICE AUTISM programs serve children ages two years through adulthood, in families homes and our clinics throughout BC.

Our wide range of services are based on ABA and delivered through a transparent fee-for-service model that gives parents voice and choice, and invites them into partnership and participation with us.

Developmental Eye Exams
Pediatric Occupational Therapy
Vision Therapy

Don't take your child's vision for granted.
Please have their eyes checked yearly.

WHO ARE WE

The Langley School District Foundation was established to support and promote programs of excellence, not funded by the Ministry of Education. Although the Foundation is Independent of the Langley School District, its sole purpose is to support Langley students. Our Board of Directors includes representatives from the community, school trustees and District administrators.

OUR MISSION

is to make learning UNFORGETTABLE for every Langley student. With the support of the community and our partners in the public and private sectors, we are committed to enhancing and enriching our educational programs to ensure that every Langley student receives the best education possible.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

...discover the care you deserve

From the beginning of life, much stress is put on a child's nervous system through the birthing process, learning to sit up, crawl & walk, injuries incurred during playing, and involvement in sports & school activities.

Dr. Rai uses safe and gentle techniques, adapted specifically for babies and children. Chiropractic can help children with developmental needs, Autism, ADHD, Cerebral Palsy, Down Syndrome, motor & developmental delays & more.

Dr. Rai is Webster Certified and is trained to care for women who are pregnant, planning to become pregnant and having difficulty becoming pregnant.

At Rai Chiropractic you can expect your child, yourself and your family to be treated in an open, courteous and professional manner as we work with you to identify and achieve your health goals for your entire family.
